Remarks at the Detroit Edison Monroe Plant in Monroe, Michigan

September 15, 2003

Thank you all. Please be seated, unless you don’t have a seat. [Laughter] Thanks for the warm welcome. I appreciate the chance to come to this vital facility to meet the workers who make it go, meet the planners who keep it modern, and meet some of the people who benefit from the electricity that’s generated out of here.

I come knowing our Nation faces some great challenges. The biggest challenge we face is the security of our people. We’ve got to make sure that America is secure from the enemies which hate us. And we’ve got to make America secure by having an economy that grows so people can find work.

On the first front, to make sure America is secure, we’re making good progress. The 2 years from September the 11th—we got hit. We got hit by people who cannot stand what America believes in. We love freedom, and we’re not going to change. And they probably won’t either. Therapy won’t work with this bunch. [Laughter]
